WHERE IS LA VERNE?

The City of La Verne is located in the Pomona Valley, 30 miles east of Los Angeles. La Verne has more than 30,000 residents and a well balanced community with a good mix of residential, commercial and industrial features. La Verne is a "close knit" community that is home to many fine institutions and facilities among which include the University of La Verne (founded in 1891), Brackett Airport and fine public and private schools and sits next door to the biggest county fair in the nation, The Los Angeles County Fair. La Verne is one of the most desirable communities in metropolitan Southern California, La Verne is a progressive city that has retained much of its small town charm.

ACM CONFERENCE PARKING:

The University of La Verne will be holding its annual Homecoming Football game on Oct. 15. Attendees are asked to park at the Bonita High School parking lot (3102 "D" Street) located between Foothill Blvd. and Bonita Ave. There will be a shuttle for attendees from 8:30 a.m.- 11:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.- 6 p.m.

WAVE AWARDS PARKING:

Please park in campus lots. Permit Parking will be lifted for this event. No permit is necessary.
